Update From The President

As we move further into the new year, it's essential to keep April 15th marked on your calendar—Tax Day. This is an excellent time to review your financial records, gather necessary documents, and ensure you're prepared to meet this important deadline.

Did you know that contributions to IRAs and Roth IRAs for the 2024 tax year can still be made up until April 15th? These accounts not only help you save for retirement but can also provide valuable tax benefits. Whether you're looking to reduce your taxable income with a traditional IRA or grow your retirement savings tax-free with a Roth IRA, we're here to help you find the right solution. When deciding between a Roth IRA or a Traditional IRA, consider the following:

Roth IRA

Potential for Lower Tax Impact in Retirement: If you believe your tax rate will be higher in retirement than it is currently, the Roth IRA allows you to pay taxes now while you are at a lower rate, ensuring that your withdrawals later on are tax-free.

Estate Planning Benefits: Roth IRAs can be passed on to heirs without immediate tax consequences. Beneficiaries will have to take distributions, but they will not owe tax on those withdrawals.

IRA

Lower Taxes During Retirement: If you anticipate retiring in a lower tax bracket, a Traditional IRA might be a better choice. You'll defer paying taxes until you withdraw money, potentially reducing your overall tax burden during retirement.

Immediate Tax Deduction: One of the main advantages of a Traditional IRA is the tax deduction you can take in the year you make contributions. This can significantly reduce your taxable income and provide essential tax savings when you need them.

As part of our commitment to providing convenient and timely service, we want to remind you that your 2024 1099 form is now available through the member portal. This form is issued to members who took a withdrawal of $10 or more from an FCSU Awarded Over $200,000 in Scholarships in 2024!

A Word of Thanks!

Thank you so much for awarding me the First Catholic Slovak Union scholarship this year! I am currently a first year music major at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. My primary instrument is violin, but I am also minoring in organ and planning to double major in small business management. My first semester went great, and I am looking forward to the spring semester. I greatly appreciate the interest that FCSU has taken in making sure that education is more accessible by awarding these scholarships. You have made this wonderful experience possible by letting me remain focused on practicing, academics, and building connections instead of worrying how I will make ends meet. Thank you!

Martin Meyer

Dear Scholarship Committee Members:

I would like to thank you, the FCSU officers, and the Jednota Benevolent Foundation. I am very pleased to have received the award as it will help me continue my studies at the University of Pittsburgh and eventually my goals in the engineering community. Thank you for your support.

Message from the National Chaplain

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER AND AWARENESS AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING

The Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace and the International Union of Superiors General has designated February 8 as an annual day of prayer and awareness against human trafficking. This day was chosen because it is the feast of Saint Josephine Bakhita. Josephine, born around 1869 in Sudan, was kidnapped as a child and sold into slavery to a number of owners. She eventually was purchased by the Italian Consul, brought to Italy, and sent to live with a religious community of women. Josephine was formally introduced to the Faith, baptized, and eventually granted her freedom. She joined the Canossian Daughters of Charity and served her fellow sisters as cook and seamstress. She died in 1947 and was canonized in 2000.

Rev. Thomas Nasta
 Chaplain

PRAYER TO SAINT JOSEPHINE BAKHITA

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the inspiring example of Saint Josephine Bakhita.

Saint Josephine Bakhita, you were enslaved as a child; you were bought and sold, you were treated brutally. Intercede, we implore you, for all those who are trapped in trafficking and slavery. May their captors let them go, and may this evil be erased from the face of the earth.

Saint Josephine Bakhita, once you regained your freedom, you did not let your sufferings define your life. You chose a path of kindness and generosity. Help those blinded by greed and lust who trample the human rights and dignity of their brothers and sisters. Help them to break out of their hateful chains, to become fully human again, and to imitate your kindness and generosity.

Dear Saint Josephine Bakhita, your freedom drew you to Christ and his Church. Then God called you to religious life as a Canossian Sister. You practiced great charity, mercy and joyful gentleness in your vocation. Help us always to be like you, especially when we feel tempted to look away and not to help, to reject others or even to abuse them. Intercede for us so that Christ may fill our hearts with you as he always filled yours.

O loving God, pour your merciful light into our troubled world. Let it flood into the darkest shadows. Bring salvation to the innocents who suffer under sinful abuse. Bring conversion to the utterly lost souls who hold them captive and exploit them. Give us all the strength to grow in the true freedom of love for you, for each other, and for our common home. Amen.

SS. Cyril and Methodius February Appeal

The Saints Cyril and Methodius Appeal is in its 47th year raising money to assist the Pontifical Slovak College of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Rome with its day-to-day operations. Today, the Appeal relies upon the generosity of individual donors in addition to collections taken up in personal parishes of Slovak ancestry. A direct mailing asking for donations was sent in January to local district and branch leaders from the four Catholic Slovak Fraternal Organizations, members of the Slovak Catholic Federation, and previous donors.

As of February 1, 75 donors have given $5,055.00 for the 2025 Appeal. Among the 19 donations received from Catholic Slovak Fraternal Branches and Districts, Branch 40, Branch 45, Branch 112, Branch 166, Branch 320, Branch 731, Branch 743, Branch 746, Branch 857, and District 14 of the FCSU have donated a combined total of $825. Donations have also been received from 14 clergy and religious and 42 individuals. On behalf of the Pontifical College, thank you for your continued generosity and support.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the 2025 Appeal but did not receive a letter asking for a donation is asked to fill out the information in the box at the bottom of this article and mailing it along with your check payable to the Slovak Catholic Federation to the address provided. Donations in any amount are deeply appreciated and are acknowledged. Gifts received after November 30, 2025 will be credited toward the 2026 Appeal. Thank you again for your goodness and generosity.

February Reflection

Having celebrated and concluded the Christmas season, I remain impressed by the beauty of the holy names—Jesus, Mary, Joseph. Thus, I chose this favorite hymn in honor of The Holy Family.

The name “Jesus” means “God saves.” The child born of the Virgin Mary is called Jesus, “for He will save His people from their sins” (Mt 1:21). “There is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved” (Acts 4:12).

God chose for the mother of His Son “a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin’s name was Mary” (Lk. 1:27). Here we witness how Mary was predestined and “chosen” by name to mother God’s Son. God chooses those who are considered powerless and weak to prove His faithfulness to His promises. Mary was chosen and enriched by God with gifts. The angel Gabriel, at the moment of the Annunciation, salutes her as “full of grace” (Lk. 1:28).

Joseph, as foster father, was also blessed and prepared in God’s way. Witness the intensity of God’s guidance by dreams before and after the birth of Jesus. (Mt.1:20-25; 2:13-23).

Jesus, Mary, Joseph—precious names, each symbolic of God’s love and plan for our salvation and continued blessings on our daily path of life. As the hymn reminds us, we cling to this Holy Family by prayerful hope and trust—calling on them by name to be our guides and support.

May the repetition of these names—Jesus, Mary, Joseph, lift our minds and hearts to God as we live and serve in His Holy Presence.

Sister Maria Theresa Hronec, SS.C.M.

NAMES MOST PRECIOUS

(English translation to Slovak hymn melody)

- Names most precious prayed together:
Honor Jesus, Mary, Joseph!
Hear this prayerful song we offer,
Praising Jesus, Mary, Joseph!
May this praise resound forever
Blessed Jesus, Mary, Joseph!
- Names to which we cling most dearly,
Trusting Jesus, Mary, Joseph!
We return from sinful failing,
Praying Jesus, Mary, Joseph!
May your saving grace bless us faithfully
Pray we Jesus, Mary Joseph!
- Blessed comfort, hope in sadness,
Hearing Jesus, Mary, Joseph!
Beacon lights which guide to goodness,
Radiant Jesus, Mary, Joseph!
May we strive to live in your presence,
Daily, Jesus Mary, Joseph!

NAJSLADŠIE NAD VŠETKY MENÁ

- Najsladšie nad všetky mená:
Ježiš, Mária, Jozef!
Naša pieseň každodenná,
Ježiš, Mária, Jozef!
Bude vás chváliť na veky,
Ježiš, Mária, Jozef!
- Mená, ku ktorým letíme,
Ježiš, Mária, Jozef!
Z hriechu sa vždy k nim vrátíme,
Ježiš, Mária, Jozef!
Budte našim útočišťom,
Ježiš, Mária, Jozef!
- Ó potešenie v zármutku,
Ježiš, Mária, Jozef!
Ó svetlo k dobrému skutku,
Ježiš, Mária, Jozef!
Dajte, by sme pre vás žili,
Ježiš, Mária, Jozef!

LIGHT ONE CANDLE

Fra Angelico’s Paintings as Prayer

Fr. Ed Dougherty, M.M., The Christophers’ Board of Directors

February 18th is the Feast of Blessed Fra Angelico, who was a Dominican friar and painter of the early Italian Renaissance. When Pope John Paul II beatified him in 1982, he was asked about Fra Angelico’s miracles and simply pointed to his paintings and said, “These are his miracles.”

Born in Tuscany around 1395, Fra Angelico’s initial training as an artist was in the creation of illuminated manuscripts, and he went on to paint frescoes and other works for churches and religious houses throughout Italy. Scripture was his inspiration, and he always prayed for God’s blessings on his work and viewed the act of painting as a prayer in and of itself.

Two years after beatifying Fra Angelico, John Paul II declared him patron of Catholic artists. In one of the beautiful and laudatory statements he made about Fra Angelico, John Paul II said, “Angelico was reported to say, ‘He who does Christ’s work must stay with Christ always.’ This motto earned him the epithet ‘Blessed Angelico,’ because of the perfect integrity of his life and the almost divine beauty of the images he painted, to a superlative extent those of the Blessed Virgin Mary.”

In the spring of 2024, the Uffizi Gallery, a prominent museum in the heart of Florence, presented a reunification of Fra Angelico’s Glorification of Mary with the original predella he painted to accompany it. Created sometime between 1431 and 1435 for the hospital church of Santa Maria Nuova in Florence, the Glorification of Mary depicts our Blessed Mother assumed into heaven and enthroned beside Christ the Redeemer. The Predella, which is a separate panel beneath the main painting, consists of two compartments depicting the Marriage and Funeral of the Virgin.

The Glorification was separated from its predella in the 17th century and eventually reunited at the Uffizi only to be separated again during World War II and moved around to secret locations to protect it from bombings and raids by the Nazis. After the war, the main panel returned to the Uffizi, while its predella wound up in a different museum in Florence. It wasn’t until last year, when the predella finally returned to the Uffizi, that the work could be displayed again as Fra Angelico originally intended.

In his authoritative book on Italian art entitled Lives of the Artists, 16th century historian Giorgio Vasari called Fra Angelico, “a rare and perfect talent,” adding, “It is impossible to bestow too much praise on this holy father, who was so humble and modest in all that he did and said and whose pictures were painted with such facility and piety.”

This statement about the character of Fra Angelico has certainly heightened interest in the intent underpinning his Glorification and the predella he created to accompany it, and the Uffizi has rightly celebrated this reunification. Those who visit the work now receive a fuller glimpse of his vision in this beautiful tribute to the life of our Blessed Mother and the exalted status she occupies in our faith. In his life and work, Fra Angelico demonstrates how the arts can work in service to the faith to illuminate the figures, stories, and principles at the heart of Scripture. May Fra Angelico intercede for all artists to draw closer to Christ so their work can reveal truth to all people and inspire us to see the beauty of creation and the faith given to us to discover God’s love.

Insights and Viewpoints

Luke 6:17, 20-26, Demetrius R. Dumm, O.S.B

It is instructive to compare Luke’s Beatitudes with those of Matthew (5:2-11). Luke offers just four Beatitudes while Matthew gives us eight. But the four that Luke shares with Matthew are considered the oldest version and contain the essential teaching. Luke also adds four Woes, not found in Matthew, and intended to re-enforce, by contrast, the message of the previous Beatitudes.

The most important word in all the Beatitudes is the subject of the first one, namely, the “poor.” This English word, suggesting economic destitution, does not at all capture the full meaning of the Hebrew word from which it is ultimately derived. In that fuller sense, the poor are the “afflicted ones” or, more specifically, the “powerless ones.” This often includes the economically destitute but it includes also those who recognize their radical poverty when it comes to the matter of final salvation. In the gospel, the poor stand in contrast to the Scribes and Pharisees who, though themselves far from materially rich, were so “full of themselves” and so smug about salvation that they effectively closed themselves to the free gift of the Kingdom.

In essence, therefore, God gives salvation to those humble ones who know how powerless they really are in spiritual matters and who are ready to turn humbly to God who is more than willing to give them the Kingdom. The “hungry” and the “weeping” and the “persecuted” are variations on the poor ones. The hungry know that only God can satisfy their needs and do not try to place that burden on any merely human creature. The weeping know that God’s command to love often leads to grieving...and who love nonetheless. The persecuted, or ridiculed ones, gladly embrace the “foolish” wisdom of unselfish service because they realize that God’s gift is only for the generous ones.

The seemingly benign appearance of these well-known Beatitudes conceal a very harsh judgment on many of the attitudes of the secular culture in which we live and by which we are probably influenced far more than we realize. This secular culture (and our natural instincts) lead us to place a very high premium on control. A metaphor for this in our contemporary world is the remote control for our TVs. There is a pleasing sense of power in being able to “zap” advertisements and people on the screen with whom we disagree.

This tendency could be relatively harmless except when we allow it to influence our relationship with God and our attitude toward other people. An excessive yearning for control is clearly a prideful attitude and it is pride, more than anything else, that blocks our access to the free gift of salvation. It can also destroy the delicate fabric of our loving relationship with other people.

The opposite of our passion for control is our willingness to love to the point of vulnerability. Machismo is unhealthy because it is so out of touch with reality. We are living in a dangerous illusion when we think that we must always be in control. The fact is that we do not control the most important realities in life, such as love, happiness and life itself. These are wonderful gifts and we should be happy to accept them as such. When we try to seize them, they inevitably slip through our fingers.

We need to understand the true role of power. It can be very useful but it must always be guided by love. When that happens, we can also let go of it, when the time comes, and thus be ready for the exquisite gift of God’s Kingdom.

Reconnect with Your Slovak Heritage and Homeland

Let 2025 be the year you discover your Slovak homeland and reconnect with your family roots. Travel through the ever-changing landscapes. Rediscover the traditions you remember from childhood. Learn about Slovakia's history and why so many families left this beautiful country to settle in America. Walk your family's village streets and reconnect with the family who stayed behind.

Enjoy all of this and more – festivals, castles, music, outdoor heritage museums, the Tatry mountains – as a part of the popular fall Slovakia Heritage Tour, September 12-21, or the new spring Slovakia Heritage Tour, June 20-29, 2025.

"No matter how many generations their family has been in the States, Americans still have a longing to reconnect with their roots...the people, places, and lives that came before. It's in our DNA," said Judy Northup-Bennett, a Slovakia travel consultant who helps people with their Slovakia travel plans. Judy founded the Slovakia Heritage Tour in 2011 with Peter and Jane Blazicek of Best Slovakia Tours who now operate the tours.

Judy said people love the relaxed pace of the small-group tour that people can personalize to meet their own travel plans. They have a very good success rate in working with travelers before the tour on genealogical research and reconnecting with relatives that stayed in Slovakia. "People like getting off the beaten-track where they can experience their own family history as well as tour Slovakia and meet Slovaks today."

“I mailed my check to the gas company two months ago to pay the $45 bill. Today, the gas company sent me a bill stating I hadn’t paid last month’s bill. So, they charged me again for last month’s bill plus this month’s bill, plus a late payment fee of $25. I just checked my bank statement, and I noticed that somehow the $45 check I had written was altered to read $4,500 and someone cashed it.”

Be on the Lookout for Check Washing Scams

Check washing scams like the example above are on the rise, with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service reporting a 161% increase nationwide in recent years. Criminals steal checks from mailboxes or postal facilities, erase the original details using household chemicals, and replace them with their own name and a higher amount. They then cash or deposit the counterfeit checks, leaving victims with significant financial losses.

How to Protect Yourself:

1. GO DIGITAL: Set up automatic payments through your bank to eliminate the need for mailing checks.
2. USE SECURITY ENVELOPES: Avoid using envelopes that say “payment enclosed.” Instead, opt for opaque security envelopes.
3. WRITE SMART: Gel pens are harder to erase, but counterfeiters are increasingly sophisticated—consider minimizing check use altogether.
4. STAY VIGILANT: Check your bank statements daily for unauthorized transactions and report them immediately.
5. SECURE YOUR MAIL: Never leave outgoing mail in your outdoor mailbox.

If you suspect check fraud contact your bank immediately. Take steps to safeguard your finances and help protect yourself from becoming a victim of check washing.

Here at FCSU, we are taking steps to ensure your information is gathered safely. One way is encouraging you to use our member portal to make payments to avoid sending checks in the mail.

Sole Mates Across the Americas

We are happy to recognize the FCSU branches who reported their participation in the first FCSU Sole Mates Across the Americas initiative. Thanks to their generosity, we helped the less fortunate this winter. We look forward to more branches participating next year. It is amazing the good that can be accomplished when FCSU members work together.

Branch 162, Uniontown, PA

Branch 162 collected socks for three weekends at Catholic Churches in the Uniontown area. Through this wonderful effort, and the generosity of many parishioners, 1,450 pairs of socks were collected! Branch members distributed socks to men and women with children at City Mission houses, Mary's House, the Rendu Houses for homeless veterans with children, A.B.A.T.E., Mt. Macrina Manor, St. Mary's Children's Closet and Laurel Highlands H.S. Clothing Closet. The members felt this community project was a wonderful experience. The branch extends its sincere thanks to all who contributed to such a worthy cause. The FCSU is most grateful to Branch 162 for embracing Sole Mates Across the Americas.

Branch 587 Aliquippa, PA

Branch 587 collected 150 pairs of socks at their annual meeting. Seventy-five pairs of socks were donated to St. Vincent de Paul/Our Lady of Fatima Church in Hopewell Twp. The other 75 pairs were donated to Resurrection Parish's Religious Education Program in support of their sock drive for Outreached Arms, a non-profit which provides basic necessities to the inner city homeless and working poor of Pittsburgh, while sharing the love of Jesus Christ. Kayla Fibbi and Ethan Fibbi are shown gathering their branch's donations.

Region 1's Community Project

Branches 45 (New York, NY), 716 (New York, NY), 290 (Bridgewater, NJ) and 746 (Linden, NJ) joined together to collect socks for the needy at their branch and District 4 and 16 meetings, making it a true community project for Region 1 members.

Through their generous efforts over 300 pairs of socks were donated several deserving charities. Branch 746 donated to The Mercy House of the Archdiocese of Newark who provides food, clothing, life necessities and a variety of services to the poor of New Jersey, including newly arriving immigrants and refugee families. Branch 290 donated their collection to S.H.I.P. (Samaritan Homeless Interim Program). Thank you all for your participation and kindness.

For whatever you do to the least of my brothers, that you do unto me.

FRANtastic Cuisine BY FRAN STREKAL

CHICKEN PAPRIKASH

YOU WILL NEED

- 1 large cast iron skillet or Dutch oven
- 3lbs thawed boneless skinless chicken thighs & breasts sliced & seasoned with paprika
- 2 cups chicken broth
- 2 medium onions sliced and diced
- 2 cloves of minced garlic
- Sweet Paprika (at least 2 Tbsp)
- 6 oz. of Sour cream (or more to taste)
- 1/4 cup of Flour
- 3 Tbsp. of Butter or olive oil to sauté the onions and garlic
- 1-2 Tbsp. butter to make the rue
- Optional: chopped peppers and tomatoes (skinned/seeded), salt and pepper to taste

In a large skillet or Dutch oven, sauté the chopped onions with some olive oil or butter. Add 2 Tbsp. of paprika and continue to sauté. Add garlic when the onions are about half way done. Once onions and garlic are done, add the seasoned chicken on top of the cooked onions and garlic and cover mixing occasionally so the onions don't stick. Cook for 15-20 minutes. In the middle of the skillet, add about 1-2 Tbsp. of butter, once melted, stir in 1/4 cup of flour to make a rue. (You may need more flour depending on how thick you like it). Add chicken broth and simmer to thicken. Add more paprika, salt, or pepper to taste. Turn the heat to low and add approximately 6 ounces of sour cream (more or less depending on your preference). Stir until mixed in and serve over homemade dumplings or egg noodles.

With a calling to science from an early age (5), Drew pursued his goal to become a scientist and received his B.S. degree in Physics from the Case Institute of Technology in 1977. He continued his education at Rutgers University in New Jersey, where he did graduate work in Materials Science. He also holds certifications in surface analysis and microscopy, having authored over fifty professional papers and books over the span of his 50 year career in science. His prior professional experience includes Technical Assistant for the Case Institute of Technology (CIT), employment as a lab scientist for Perkin-Elmer, Physical Electronics Division and Laboratory Manager for Structure Probe, Inc. In addition to its efforts in analytical R&D and failure analysis, the company employs summer and part-time students, makes its facilities available to elementary, high school and college level students and works with several universities on publishable R&D projects.

Since moving to their laboratory to Struthers, Drew and his wife Carol Jean have assisted the Struthers School system by participating in career days, judging science fairs, mentoring students in the middle and high schools and providing tours of their laboratory facilities. They also hosted overnight 'lock-ins' for students associated with local church youth groups for many years. Drew has assisted in the establishment of the STEM and entrepreneurship programs in the Struthers School system and has helped facilitate the formation of the Digital Media Arts and Robotics programs at the high school that include both coursework and participation in school system events and competitions.

MRL has partnered with the STEM program on several of their recent instrument grant awards. He was recognized as the Outstanding Community Partner to the YSU STEM College at their 2016 Awards Banquet. Drew and Carol Jean have also served their Catholic parish as members of the Choir (Drew sings and plays guitar), Readers, Eucharistic Ministers and with the Catholic Marriage Preparation Program.

Drew spent 20 years assisting in providing meals at the Saint Matthias Annual Slovak Day. He has been active in FCSU Branch 682 over the last 30 years. In 2022, he attended and served as a Sargeant-at-Arms at the FCSU Convention. Currently President of Branch 682, Drew has filled that office since 2016 after serving several years as its Vice President. As President, he has promoted community involvement by providing food for the hungry through local programs, donations to rescue mission programs and scholarships to graduating Slovak high school students in the Struthers School System.

We are proud to spotlight Drew Hirt, who has been an integral part of our organization for over 30 years. He has demonstrated commitment, leadership, and a spirit of fraternalism. His contributions have strengthened our community, inspired others, and upheld the values we hold dear. Enjoy A World of Entertainment & Support Branch 24's Lexi Glova

Submitted by Tom Ivanec, Region 6 Director

Celebrating their 88th Season, the Tamburitzans are headed to Independence High School on Sunday, April 27th. The event begins at 3:00pm and will be held in the auditorium of the school, located at 6001 Archwood Road in Independence, OH. They will showcase their new show, Legacy!

Folk with a Fresh Coat of Paint. That's how the group's Artistic Director George Kresovich describes his vision for every show. With a background in entertainment at Disney, he strives to create a Tamburitzans production that is a delicate balancing act, blending tradition and modernity, education and entertainment, all ingredients mixed to craft a phenomenal experience. "Whether this is your first show or your 50th, it's never a dull moment with the Tamburitzans." says Alyssa Bushunow, Executive Director of the ensemble.

Started in 1937, the Pittsburgh, PA based folk ensemble is the longest running live stage act of its kind. However, the group proudly boasts a new show every year, full of exciting steps and lively songs that will have you dancing in your seat. This year's show promises to be no exception.

The 2025 Tamburitzans tour around the world traverses such countries as Croatia, Bulgaria, Armenia, Mexico and – this year as in last – Slovakia. The featured number from Slovakia in 2024 was met with thunderous applause from the many FCSU and members of the Slovak-American community in Greater Cleveland who showed their appreciation for the number and Branch 24's Lexi Glova. For one final year, Lexi will be among the 25 talented artists of the Taburitzans to escort audiences across the globe in two hours of song and dance.

Tickets for the show can be purchased at www.thetamburitzans.org/events/tickets. For more information about tickets, including possible discounts, contact Region 6 Director Tom Ivanec at 440-668-7797 or Dana Glova at 216-409-4513.

It was also covered with instant lottery tickets. The tree was donated to the WVU Medicine Hospital Volunteer Services Annual Festival of Trees fundraiser, which benefits the hospital's volunteer services.

Chewy's Corner

Brrrr! It has been COLD here in Northeast Ohio. Many people tend to stay inside in the winter, but I want to go outside. I heard a saying, "there's no bad weather, just bad clothes". So bundle up, put on your gloves (rukavice) and snowshoes (čičmy) and get some fresh air!

In February, we celebrate Valentine's Day. It's a day to show how much we care for other people. You will see lots of hearts and candy. At my school, we decorate boxes and give cards (karty) and treats (sladkosti) to our classmates. It is fun! It's nice to have a day to celebrate love, but you can tell those you care about that you love them any day of the year. It will make them feel special and it will make you feel good to share your feelings. So, don't forget to tell your parents, siblings or people close to you that you love them and care about them. It is the best gift you can give them.

Audrey J. Balazik Branch 367 Fairchance, PA

Audrey J. Balazik, 87 of Uniontown, PA passed away at home with her loving family by her side on Saturday, February 1, 2025.

She was born December 11, 1937 in Collier, PA to her parents, John Zentkovich and Mary Louise Rerko Zentkovich.

She was employed at Connellsville Sportswear and Meloni's Restaurant. She was a member of SS. Cyril and Methodius Church and the Confraternity of the Christian Mothers.

Audrey was President of First Catholic Slovak Union Branch 367 of Fairchance, PA for over 50 years. She was a strong supporter of her Slovak roots and attended the FCSU conventions as an elected delegate for her branch. She was honored in the Jednota newspaper for earning the distinguished title of "Top Gun" for her exceptional sales of FCSU life insurance products. She was a dedicated FCSU officer and proud Slovak.

Surviving are her sister, Barbara Adams; nephews, Albert Ridenour Jr. and Terry Zentkovich; niece, Audrey Ridenour and other loving family members. Preceding her in death were her parents; brother, Richard Zentkovich; sister-in-law, Dolores Zentkovich and her husband, Samuel Balazik.

Mildred "Millie" Josephine De Paolis Branch 670 Donora, PA

Mildred "Millie" Josephine De Paolis, age 93, passed away on October 25, 2024. During her final days, Millie was comforted by the presence of her family as she spoke of her love and Jesus' love for all of them.

Millie was born in Donora, PA on March 30, 1931, to Julia (Krall) and John Marconyak. She is survived by five children: Mary Ellen (Dave) O'Boyle, Gloria De Paolis, Richard J. (Cheryl) De Paolis, David A. De Paolis and Diane S. (Craig Barron) De Paolis. She is also survived by eight grandchildren: Colleen (O'Boyle) Sullivan, Brian O'Boyle, Richard Z. De Paolis, Danielle (De Paolis) Ryan, Angela (De Paolis) Leister, Aaron De Paolis, Liam Barron, and Max Barron. Ten great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews complete Millie's loving family.

Millie was preceded in death by her parents and older siblings: Brother Paul (John) Marconyak, OSB, Stephen Marconyak, Reverend Albert Marconyak, Margaret Duda, Sister Mariella Marck, SFCC and Bertha Nungesser.

The entire Marconyak family proudly lived and promoted their Slovak heritage, through their Catholic worship, customs, food and music. On May 1, 2008, Millie's proud-to-be Italian husband of nearly 54 years, Richard G. De Paolis, passed away after a nearly four-year battle with cancer, during which Millie steadfastly nursed and supported him.

Millie held numerous roles, including a secretary and expeditor for U.S. Steel, secretary for an insurance office and a church rectory, Donora Tax Office manager, member of the Confraternity of Christian Mothers, CCD Religious Education teacher and St. Dominic Catholic Church Bereavement Coordinator. Artistically talented, she excelled at painting, sewing, crocheting, embroidering, crafting dolls, and designing jewelry. She also enjoyed gardening, cooking, baking, and watching the Pittsburgh Steelers. But what Millie treasured the most was being a mother, grandmother and great-grandmother.

Although Millie spent most of her life in Donora, she moved to Vincentian Villa in the North Hills of Pittsburgh, PA in August 2011, where she found happiness in her new community. In April 2023, she transitioned to Vincentian Home Personal Care, and in May 2024 she entered hospice care.

District 3 Celebrates Štedrý Večer

On Sunday, December 1, 2024, District 3 celebrated their annual Christmas Vilija (Štedrý Večer) at the Christ Our Shepherd Center in Greensburg, PA. Many FCSU members and National Officers gathered to partake in Slovak traditions at this year's event.

The Štedrý Večer begun with Holy Mass celebrated by FCSU Protector Bishop Larry J. Kulick in the St. Joseph Chapel. Choir and musical assistance were provided by the Pittsburgh Slovaks. Following Mass, the Pittsburgh Slovaks performed a traditional Slovak pageant. The audience was wowed by beautiful traditional attire, dancing, singing, examples of Slovak traditions and a Christmas story spoken in Slovak. All guests were then directed to the dining hall and asked to be seated as District 3 President William Patty welcomed and thanked all for attending. Bishop Kulick then led guests in prayer and spoke on the symbolism behind the meal. Dinner began after the youngest attendees spotted the first star.

Attendees dined on a traditional Vilija dinner starting with homemade Oplatky. Everyone was served mushroom and sauerkraut soup, followed by the main plate of fish, peas, pierogis, pagach and bobalki. Nuts, fruit, honey, garlic and dates were also passed around the table as well as apricot and nut kolache for dessert. During dinner, District 3 Vice President Darlene Patty (with help from some of our young members) passed out raffle prizes including gift cards and plenty of holiday décor. Martin Meyer and Daniel Shulik entertained guests, playing a combination of seasonal and classical music. Special thanks to everyone who attended and organized this year's fantastic Štedrý Večer. A wonderful time was had by all! We hope members will continue coming together to celebrate this Slovak tradition!

SPP began importing Russian gas through TurkStream

Bratislava, February 6 (TASR) - From February 1 this year, the Slovak Gas Industry (SPP) began importing Russian gas to Slovakia via the TurkStream gas pipeline. From April, these deliveries should be doubled. This was said on Thursday at a meeting with journalists by the Chairman of the Board of Directors of SPP, Vojtech Ferencz.

Ferencz did not specify what the volumes would be. He reminded that SPP has a valid contract with Russia's Gazprom and the price for gas transit of this company is significantly lower than that of other suppliers.

Michal Ľalík, director of the SPP trade division, explained that despite this agreement, Slovakia will probably have to import gas through other routes, because the capacity of the gas pipeline through Hungary is not sufficient to cover the entire consumption. A route from Germany through the Czech Republic, where SPP has reserved capacity, is likely.

In January, SPP covered the needs of its customers mainly by pumping gas from a storage facility in which the company still has above-average gas reserves due to the current date.

Ferencz emphasized that ensuring sufficient gas supplies for customers is paramount for SPP. The problem is the rising price for gas and the higher price for supplies via alternative routes.

Gas prices are currently exceeding long-term highs and are at around €53 per megawatt hour (MWh). Back in December, before Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky's announcement to stop any gas transit through Ukraine, they were at around 40 euros/MWh. Gas prices have risen at the current price after information about the gas shortage in Ukraine and the publication of a negative weather forecast for the coming weeks.

The price of gas on the stock exchange with delivery in the summer of this year, which is higher than the price of gas with delivery in the winter months, is also non-standard. This means that traders are worried about gas shortages in the summer, when EU countries have to fill storage facilities to meet the EC regulation on sufficient gas supplies at the beginning of the heating season.

SPP začal dovážať ruský plyn cez TurkStream

Bratislava 6. februára (TASR) - Od 1. februára tohto roka začal Slovenský plynárenský priemysel (SPP) dovážať na Slovensko ruský plyn prostredníctvom plynovodu TurkStream. Od apríla by sa mali tieto dodávky zdvojnásobiť. Povedal to vo štvrtok na stretnutí s novinármi predseda predstavenstva SPP Vojtech Ferencz.

O aké objemy pôjde, Ferencz nespresnil. Pripomenul, že SPP má s ruským Gazpromom platnú zmluvu a cena za tranzit plynu tejto spoločnosti je výrazne nižšia ako u iných dodávateľov.

Riaditeľ divízie obchodu SPP Michal Ľalík priblížil, že napriek tejto dohode bude musieť Slovensko pravdepodobne dovážať plyn aj inými trasami, pretože kapacita plynovodu cez Maďarsko nepostačuje na pokrytie celej spotreby. Pravdepodobná je trasa z Nemecka cez Česko, kde má SPP zarezervovanú kapacitu.

V januári SPP pokrýval potreby svojich zákazníkov najmä čerpaním plynu zo zásobníka, v ktorom má podnik vzhľadom na aktuálny dátum ešte stále nadpriemerné zásoby plynu.

Ferencz zdôraznil, že pre SPP je prvoradé zabezpečenie dostatočných zásob a dodávok plynu pre zákazníkov. Problémom je rastúca cena za plyn a vyššia cena za dodávky alternatívnymi trasami.

Ceny plynu v súčasnosti prekračujú dlhodobé maximá a sú na úrovni okolo 53 eur za megawathodinu (MWh). Ešte v decembri, pred vyhlásením ukrajinského prezidenta Volodymyra Zelenského o zastavení akekoľvek tranzitu plynu cez Ukrajinu, boli na úrovni okolo 40 eur/MWh. Na súčasnú cenu plyn zdražel po informáciách o nedostatku plynu na Ukrajine a zverejnení negatívnej predpovede počasia na najbližšie týždne.

Neštandardná je aj cena plynu na burze s dodaním v lete tohto roka, ktorá je vyššia ako cena plynu s dodaním v zimných mesiacoch. Znamená to, že obchodníci sa obávajú nedostatku plynu v lete, keď musia krajiny EÚ plniť zásobníky, aby splnili nariadenie EK o dostatočných zásobách plynu na začiatku vykurovacej sezóny.

Pres. Pellegrini assured that no one wants to leave the European Union and NATO

Bratislava, February 4 (TASR) - President Peter Pellegrini assured that none of the coalition leaders or the chairman of the opposition KDH wants or is preparing the withdrawal of the Slovak Republic from the European Union (EU) and NATO. He therefore considers one of the main reasons for the regular demonstrations to be irrelevant. He said this after Tuesday's meeting with the chairmen of the coalition parties Smer-SD, Hlas-SD, SNS and the opposition KDH.

"It was very clear from this joint meeting of ours that no one, neither from the coalition parties nor the representative of the opposition KDH party, was interested in Slovakia's withdrawal from the European Union and NATO, no one is even planning such a withdrawal, no one is organizing and no one even assumes that Slovakia would see its future outside these two organizations," the president said. At the same time, according to him, everyone perceives the challenges and problems that the EU and the Alliance will have to face in the future. "Because we live in a very turbulent time. There are geopolitical shifts, there is a change in political systems," he outlined.

The president recalled that he convened the round table mainly at the request of the opposition parties KDH, PS and SaS, which expressed concern about the development of Slovakia's foreign policy. He was also led to this by the fact that fears of Slovakia's withdrawal from the EU or NATO are a motive for protesters at rallies. "If citizens continue to want to express their disagreement with something in this country, they have every right to do so, but it is useless if they express their disagreement with Slovakia's withdrawal from the EU or the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, because it is not true," he summed up.

He appreciated that the KDH leader attended the meeting. He considers the rejection of the invitation by PS leader Michal Šimečka and SaS chairman Branislav Gröhling as a sign of their immaturity and unreadiness to take over the country. He suspects them of wanting the continuation of the contradiction and questioning of foreign policy orientation.

The president endorses the idea of organizing further round tables on current challenges. "I will do everything to ensure that we once again find at least some basic consensus in the field of energy security of the country and in the field of foreign policy and speak the same language," he added. After the election of the Speaker of the National Council of the Slovak Republic, he wants to continue in the format of regular meetings of the three highest constitutional officials.

The meeting was attended by the leader of Smer-SD and Prime Minister Robert Fico, the chairman of the SNS and deputy speaker of parliament Andrej Danko, the chairman of the Voice-SD and Minister of the Interior Matúš Šutaj Eštok and the leader of the KDH and member of parliament Milan Majerský. PS and SaS rejected the president's invitation.

Prez. Pellegrini uistil, že nikto si neželá vystúpenie z Európskej únie a NATO

Bratislava 4. februára (TASR) - Prezident Peter Pellegrini ubezpečil, že nikto z koalíčných lídrov ani predseda opozičného KDH si neželá ani nepripravuje vystúpenie Slovenskej republiky z Európskej únie (EÚ) a NATO. Jeden z hlavných dôvodov pravidelných demonštrácií považuje preto za irelevantný. Uviedol to po utorkovom stretnutí s predsedami koalíčných strán Smer-SD, Hlas-SD, SNS a opozičného KDH.

"Z tohto nášho spoločného stretnutia vyplynulo veľmi jasne, že nikto, ani z koalíčných strán a ani predstaviteľ opozičnej strany KDH, nemal záujem o vystúpenie Slovenska z Európskej únie a NATO, nikto takéto vystúpenie ani nechystá, nikto neorganizuje a nikto ani nepredpokladá, že by Slovensko videlo svoju budúcnosť mimo týchto dvoch organizácií," vyhlásil prezident. Zároveň podľa neho všetci vnímajú výzvy a problémy, ktorým budú musieť EÚ a Aliancia v budúcnosti čeliť. "Pretože žijeme vo veľmi pohnutej dobe. Dochádza ku geopolitickým posunom, dochádza k zmene politických systémov," načrtoval.

Prezident pripomenul, že okruhly stôl zvolal najmä na žiadosť opozičných strán KDH, PS a SaS, ktoré vyjadrili znepokojenie z vývoja zahraničnej politiky SR. Viedlo ho k tomu aj to, že obavy z vystúpenia SR z EÚ alebo NATO sú motívom pre protestujúcich na zhromaždeniach. "Ak občania naďalej chcú vyjadrovať svoj nesúhlas s niečím v tejto krajine, majú na to plné právo, ale je zbytočné, ak vyjadrujú svoj nesúhlas s vystúpením Slovenska z EÚ alebo zo Severoatlantickej aliancie, lebo to nie je pravda," zhrnul.

Ocenil, že líder KDH sa na stretnutí zúčastnil. Odmietnutie pozvania zo strany lídra PS Michala Šimečka a predsedu SaS Branislava Gröhlinga považuje za prejav ich nevyzretosti a nepripravenosti prevziať riadenie krajiny. Podozrieva ich, že chcú pokračovanie rozporu a sponchyňovania zahraničnopolitickej orientácie.

Prezident sa hlási k myšlienke organizovať ďalšie okrúhle stoly k aktuálnym výzvam. "Budem robiť všetko pre to, aby sme opäť v oblasti energetickej bezpečnosti krajiny a v oblasti zahraničnej politiky nachádzali aspoň aký-taký bazálny konsenzus a hovorili sme jedným jazykom," dodal. Po zvolení predsedu Národnej rady SR chce pokračovať aj vo formáte pravidelných stretnutí troch najvyšších ústavných činiteľov.

Na stretnutí sa zúčastnili líder Smeru-SD a premiér Robert Fico, predseda SNS a podpredseda parlamentu Andrej Danko, predseda Hlasu-SD a minister vnútra Matúš Šutaj Eštok a líder KDH a poslanec parlamentu Milan Majerský. PS a SaS odmietli pozvanie prezidenta. Líder PS Michal Šimečka označil formát stretnutia za pascu na opozíciu. Pripomenul, že o stretnutie ho žiadali tri opozičné strany, no hlava štátu pozvala aj koalíčné strany. SaS odmietla byť súčasťou "falošnej hry" na nadstraníckosť, premiéra Fica nepovažuje za dôveryhodného partnera.
